LOSS ABOUT $70,000.

Early Morning Fire in Myrtle Avenue Spreads Rapidly.

Adams Street Court and Police Station Narrowly Escaped.

The Latter Was Damaged to the Extent of $300.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the clothing establishment of Samuel Goldstein, at 21 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, which destroyed nearly $70,000 worth of stock and property.

James McCue, living on Myrtle avenue, near Bridge street, was passing Goldstein's place when he saw a tongue of flame shoot through a window on the first floor. He ran around to the Adams street police station and gave the alarm.

The flames extended to the four-story frame house adjoining, occupied by Edward Zimmerle as a delicatessen store, and to No. 25, occupied by Myer Rickman's cigar store and P. C. Grundy's liquor store. From No. 25 the flames shot across the yard, in the rear, to the Adams Street Police Court and station-house.

The patrolmen asleep in the dormitory were turned out in double quick order, while the firemen drenched the outside trimmings of the building with water. The station-house and police court were damaged to the extent of $300.

None of the records in the police court were destroyed, though the floors were flooded with water.

Mr. Goldstein and his family are out of town. The only other families in the buildings were the Zimmerles and the Grundys, who live over their stores.

Mr. Grundy's saloon, a bartender, was awakened by the clanging of the bells. He rushed to the door and saw the flames. He tried to get out, but the door was blocked by the fire.

Mr. Grundy's stock was damaged to the extent of $40,000, and the building, owned by G. S. Grundy, was damaged to the extent of $10,000. Zimmerle's stock was damaged to the extent of $10,000.

Mr. Rickman's cigar store proprietor, suffered a loss of $20,000, and the building, owned by the Rickmans, was also damaged to the extent of $5,000. F. C. Grundy's stock and fixtures, valued at $10,000, were also damaged.

Capt. Campbell, of the Adams street police station, was called to the scene of the fire. He found the firemen working to contain the flames. He ordered the firemen to use water on the flames.

Mr. Goldstein's stock was damaged to the extent of $70,000. The building, owned by Goldstein, was also damaged to the extent of $10,000. The firemen were working to contain the flames.

FAIR LILLIAN WINS. E. ROOSEVELT DEAD, DESTROYED HIS SIGHT.

Miss Russell Free to Sing for Abbey Until Oct. 1.

Then Her Contract with Canary & Lederer Is in Force.

Decision of Importance to Theatrical People.

Lillian Russell can sing, dance, play or do as she pleases, and for any one she pleases, up to Oct. 1, whether Manager Lederer likes it or not, is what Justice Bartlett practically says in modifying Justice Gaynor's injunction order.

After Oct. 1 the injunction will stand in full force.

Canary & Lederer claim that Miss Russell made a contract with them for her exclusive services during the seasons of 1893-94 and 1894-95, and that this covers the vacation period between the two seasons as well.

A few weeks ago they learned that Miss Russell was about to leave for Europe to sing in the "Queen of Brilliants" in London for Abbey, Schaeffer & Grau during September. They secured a temporary injunction from Justice Gaynor restraining Miss Russell from breaking her contract with them.

Justice Bartlett's decision is that the contract between Miss Russell and Canary & Lederer only applies to the two seasons, and not to the vacation period between them. He expresses his doubt as to whether Mr. Lederer deceived Miss Russell into making a contract under false pretenses, as she alleges. In relation to Miss Russell's objection that Canary & Lederer did not have as long a term as she wanted, she represented that they had, Justice Bartlett says.

In concluding his opinion Justice Bartlett says: "The impression made upon my mind is that the defendant has been seeking some plausible pretext to avoid the fulfillment of a contract which has been substantially performed in good faith on the part of the plaintiffs."

IN FEAR OF HIS LIFE.

Supt. Sittler Says Driver O'Brien Threatened Him.

Threatened Him.

Supt. John Sittler, of the Bell Line Railroad, believes he is in danger for his life, which was threatened by James O'Brien, a discharged cardriver of the road. This morning the cardriver was arrested by Court Officer Beller on a warrant issued on the complaint of Mr. Sittler and committed to prison for three months.

The superintendent says that on Monday last O'Brien reported late for duty and was reprimanded by the superintendent. He at once became abusive, and Mr. Sittler ordered him suspended until he could be dealt with.

A few days ago O'Brien called on the superintendent and threatened his life if he was interfered with in securing work on another road. On being arrested this morning, he said that he would "do" Sittler when he got out.
